

#49 Waialeale

By Eric A. Knudsen

Presented May 19, 1924

Geographical Area: Waialeale

Volume 2 Pages 1-5

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: A descriptive account of the Waialeale area, and accounts of trips made there by the author between August of 1902 and May of 1924.

#50 The First Mission Settlement on Kauai

By Ethel M. Damon, based on information gained from the Manuscript Journals of the Rev. Samuel and Mrs. Mercy Whitney, 1820-1 824.

Presented August, 1924

Geographical Area: Waimea

Volume 2 Pages 7-53

Abstract: Historical accounting of the development of the first mission settlement on Kauai. The article paints a picture of the material difficulties of the Missionaries in those early days and the efforts put into establishing a positive relationship with the Hawaiian Royalty. Inclusions: (1) B/W photoprint of Waimea, circa 1824.

#51 Captain James Cook

By Bishop Henry B. Restarick

Presented September 20, 1926

Geographical Area: Waimea

Volume 2 Pages 54-66

Abstract: Treatise on the life of Captain James Cook, including his "discovery" of Hawaii and the voyages he made here. Inclusions: (2) copies of "sketches" depicting Waimea, one from 1824, attributed to Mr. Bingham, one from 1854, artist unknown.

#52 Vovages Across the Pacific Ocean Part I

By R.S. Kuykendall

Presented January 30, 1927

Geographic Area: Pacific Ocean

Volume 2 Pages 67-77

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: Traces early voyages made across the Pacific, from the time of Magellan and concentrating on the Spanish. No mention is made as to location of

"Part

II".

#53 The Menehune Family

By C.F. Hofgaard

Presented May 16, 1927

Geographical Area: Island-wide

Volume 2 Pages 79-88

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: Opinion paper on Hawaii's legendary Menehunes. Author states they are related to "little people" elsewhere in the world, namely Lilliputians, Dwarfs, Gnomes, Nisse and Kiniakaa. Paper includes reference to the physical appearance and work ethics of the Menehunes and notes particular Heiau and fishponds which have been attributed to them.

#54 The Ruins of Nihoa and Necker: The Ruins at Haena, Kauai.

By Kenneth P. Emory

Illustrated lecture presented March 26, 1928

Geographical Area: Nihoa, Necker and Haena

Volume 2 Pages 91-105

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: Thorough description of the islands of Nihoa and Necker, including geographical location, vegetation, bird and animal life, and various expeditions made to the islands between 1822 and 1928 for the purpose of studying ancient ruins and heiau. Also includes a description of the ancient ruins at and near the heiau at Kee near Haena, Kauai. Inclusions: (2) B/W photoprints from the Bishop Museum depicting enclosures used in farming in Tahiti, offered here by the author to compare with the Menehune Ditch of Kauai, and (2) B/W photoprints depicting ancient Hawaiian Heiau; one the heiau of Liholiho at Kealakekua, Hawaii, the other merely noted as being on Atooi.

#55 The Value of Tradition in Polynesian Research

By Dr. Peter H. Buck

Presented at KHS Annual meeting, May 7, 1928

Published in Journal of the Polynesian Society,
(Vol. 35. No. 3)

Geographical Area: Polynesia

Volume 2 Page 107 (pamphlet, 23 pp, glued in volume)

Abstract: Paper stressing the importance of tradition and the realization that oral history be seen as a valuable tool in ethnological research regarding the Polynesian race.

#56 Cook's Arrow

By Lyle A. Dickey

Presented July 23, 1928

Geographical Area: Waimea

Volume 2 Pages 109-115

Abstract: Paper interested in studying the facts braided in with popular stories about an arrow cut in rock at Kanaana, on the western side of the Waimea Valley, Kauai, supposedly by Captain James Cook. Stories tell of this being done to mark the spot of his landing. Author contends that arrow was carved 96 years later by the astronomer Richard Johnson.

Inclusions: (1) Photoprint copy of a Chart from the publication entitled, "Account of Observations of the Transit of Venus" (1874), depicting the Village of Waimea and the position of Mr. Johnson's Observatory.

#57 Notes on Early History of Kauai

By George R. Carter

Presented February 4, 1929

Geographical Area: Kauai and Niihau

Volume 2 Pages 117-127

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: Research done by Mr. Carter that covers the period from Cook's discovery to Vancouver's last voyage to Kauai. The authors' researchers yielded records of 22 different ships touching at Kauai. Information on the captain and crews of these voyages and their impression of Kauai during their visits.

Note to G.R Carter Paper - supplied by Ethyl Damon

Volume 2 Pages 129-130

Abstract: Copy of portion of Vancouver, VOL II, pg 185, deals with a March 1792 entry from that book.

#58 Kauai Archeology

By Wendell C. Bennett

Presented May 20, 1929

Geographical Area: Island-wide

Volume 2 Pages 131-144

Abstract: Results and observations of an Archeological survey of Kauai, conducted from June 1928-June 1929 and commissioned by the Bishop Museum. The author states the purpose of the survey was to locate and describe the remains of all Hawaiian structures, to describe the artifacts of Kauai and to review the literature relating to Kauai. Inclusions: (15) Bishop Museum photoprints of sites, including close-ups of stone construction at Menehune Fishpond, Poliahu and Hauola heiau, and of stone implements such as ring poi pounders, adzes, axes and club heads examined by the author.

#59 Portion of Letter Written by Oliver L Spaulding 1883

Presented by Colonel Thomas M. Spaulding (son),

December 16, 1929

Geographical Area: Kapaa

Volume 2 Page 147

Abstract: Brief account of a visit to Kapaa, Kauai and the home of Col. Z.S. Spaulding. Author much impressed with the Spaulding estate, and most of paper is spent describing it and all the apparent accoutrements.

Chief Justice William Little Lee

By Thomas M. Spaulding

Presented December 16, 1929

Geographical Area: State-wide

Volume 2 Pages 149-153

Abstract: A tribute article to the late Chief Justice,

the second lawyer to arrive in the Kingdom, describing his life and accomplishments. Includes explanation as to the first constitution of Hawaii, and the large part Lee played in the transformation and re-organization of the judicial structure of the Kingdom and of the writing and implementation of the "Great Mahele".