WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT YOUR GIFT TO THE KAUAI HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1. Kauai Historical Society is a non-profit organization. Once the Deed of Gift is completed, your copy is your receipt of proof of your donation and should be retained for your records. If you have questions about utilizing your donation as a charitable contribution you should contact your tax advisor or an office of the Internal Revenue Service. Kauai Historical Society does not appraise donations made to it.

2. Acceptance by the Kauai Historical Society of the items described on the face of this form does not imply that the terms will be on public display.

3. It is understood that the Kauai Historical society has full powers of management, display, conservation and disposition of the donated property, including the power to transfer the property to another institution for use in its exhibits, collections or programs, duplicate it for preservation or dissemination purposes, or otherwise dispose of the material in the event that it should be found inappropriate for retention by the Kauai Historical Society.

I have read and accepted the foregoing conditions contingent upon the restrictions listed on the reverse of this page:
