Abstract:

Correspondence between a World War II soldier and his sister beginning when Private Katsuki Tanigawa was at Camp Shelley, Mississippi in 1943 and ending in 1946, as a Master Sergeant with an address at the Tokyo Army Hospital Annex. All three letters are addressed to Mrs. Lillian Sugibayashi the former Lillian S. Tanigawa.

Additional items in the collection includes a 1923 Kapaa School class photograph with Lillian's photo; an undated newspaper clipping about the Miyashiro brothers who were soldiers in Korea; and 2 newspaper photograph of the polo field at Waipouli and the Kealia Mill.

The list of all students who appeared in the 1923 Kapaa School class is on the finding aid on the next page.

These records came to the Kauai Historical Society on May 27, 2021 donated by Amy Rivera. These materials are open to research. Kauai Historical Society Accession Number 2021.010 Processed by Marylou Bradley in 2021 with funding provided by the Rise to Work program.
