

#37 An Ancient Trial in the District Court. Waimea. Kauai

By Judge Hardy, supposedly written in 1896.

Presented by C.B. Hofgaard, November 24, 1919

Geographical Area: Waimea

Volume 1 Pages 308-310

Abstract: Poetic account of a jury trial (fictional?) held in Waimea in the time of Kauai (a person). The account is written as a poem, with each line ending in a (rhyming) Hawaiian word. English translations are provided for each. Inclusions: One page background explanation written by presenter C.F. Hofgaard.

#38 The Malumalu Industrial School

By J.M. Lydgate

Presented July 26, 1920

Geographical Area: Koloa

Volume 1 Pages 311-318

Abstract: The history of the Malumalu Industrial School from its founding by Dr. Jared Smith and his sister Juliet, in 1890, to its closing in 1898. The school was a boarding school, for Hawaiian boys attempting to offer the "advantages" of a Christian Home as well as a liberal education. The ambitious goal was to offer a combination approach stressing equal parts agricultural, academic and manual training. It was to be the Kauai version of the Kohala Seminary on Hawaii, or Kamehameha or Kawaihau on Oahu. Faculty is noted with approximate dates of employment.

#39 Life at Malumalu in the Old Days

By Mrs. J.M. Lydgate (Helen Elswell Lydgate)

Presented July 26, 1920

Geographical Area: Koloa

Volume 1 Pages 319-329

Abstract: Mrs. Lydgate tells how she came to the islands to teach at the Malumalu Industrial School and the various experiences she had while there. Note, this paper complements Kauai paper #38 well, offering a more personal account of daily life at the school.

#40 The Graveyard Ghost

By Dora Broadbent

Presented July 26, 1920

Geographical Area: Koloa

Volume 1 Pages 330-332

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 1

Abstract: A ghost story taking place at the Malumalu Industrial School.

#41 Legend of the Bird Man

Legend, no author.

Presented by W.H. Rice, October 18, 1920

Geographical Area: Wainiha Valley

Volume 1 Pages 333-334

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 1

Abstract: Legend of Kaneikapokii, the "bird man".

#42 Kaili-Lau-0-Kekoa: The Covering of the Koa Leaf

Legend, no author.

Presented by W.H. Rice, n.d.

Geographical Area: Wailua

Volume 1 Pages 335-337

Abstract: Legend of Kaili-Lau-0-Kekoa, daughter of Moikeha and Hooipo, two high chiefs of Kauai.

#43 Reminiscences of an Amateur Collector. Part II

By J.M. Lydgate

Presented October 18, 1920

Geographical Area: Lanai

Volume 1 Pages 339-346

Abstract: Account of a trip by J.M. Lydgate and Dr. Hillebrand to the island of Lanai for the purpose of collecting botanical specimens. The trip included a visit with Walter Murray Gibson, and the paper includes a history of Gibson's life Part 1: Thrums 1920,21,22. —

#44 Some Early Scientific Work on Kauai

By Fordyce Grinnell, Jr.

Presented February 7, 1921

Geographical Area: Hawaiian Islands

Volume 1 Pages 347-350

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2

Abstract: Historical discussion of the research done by many evolutionists, naturalists and botanists who came to the Hawaiian Islands to study the plants, insects, birds etc...Some of the scientists noted include: John Thomas Gulick, and evolutionist and associate of Charles Darwin, and Naturalists Joseph Banks, Pickering and Peale.

#45 Ulukaa: The Rollina Island

Legend, no author.

Presented by W.H. Rice

Geographical Area: Waipio, Hawaii

Volume 1 Pages 351-366

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 2

Abstract: Legend of Kaeweao, the King of Waipio, Hawaii, and Kaanaelike, Queen of Ulukaa.

#46 The Story of the Waioli Mission

Compiled by Ethel M. Damon for Re-Dedication of the Waioli Church and Mission Home, November 1, 1921.

Presented November 14, 1921

Published in "The Friend", November 1921

Geographical Area: Hanalei

Volume 1 Pages 367-376

Abstract: Traces the history of the Waioli Mission from its creation in 1834 to 1921. The article chronicles the efforts of the first missionaries to the area, Rev. William Patterson Alexander and his wife Mary Ann McKinney Alexander. Among with his daily pastoral duties, Rev. Alexander is noted as translating (at the request of his superiors) into Hawaiian, text books and treatises in Geometry, Trigonometry and Navigation for use at Lahainaluna.

#47 Journal of a Tour From Waimea to Puna & Koolau

By Peter J. Gulick, written in 1829

Presented March 13, 1922

Geographical Area: Waimea to Koolau

Volume 1 Pages 374-385

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 1

Abstract: Rev. Gulick's account of his trip around the island on horseback, for the purpose of attending an examination of schools. He was accompanied on the weeklong trip by George Sandwich, three "other natives" and a "descendent of Ham from S. America. Rev. Gulick notes that every "considerably village" housed a school house, one being about 80 feet long and 36 feet wide.

Wailua Falls Kauai - Published by Duncan McBride in The Polynesian, August 25, 1855 - October 13, 1855.

Presented by Judge Dickey

Presented May 15, 1922

Abstract: Judge Dickey read a copy of an announcement about Duncan McBride's hotel at his Wailua Estate.

#48 New Light on the Relations Between Kaumualii and Kamehameha

By Ralph S. Kuykendall, Executive Secretary of the Hawaiian Historical Society

Presented May 28, 1923

Geographical Area: Kauai and Oahu

Volume 1 Pages 387-397

Original Typed: Museum, Shelf B-20, MS-2, Box 1

Abstract: Article written in response to J.M. Lydgate article on the life of Kaumualii. This is purported by author to have been written not to debate points made in the earlier article, merely to appear as an addendum or appendix, and to help in explaining the seemingly complex relationship between Kaumualii and Kamehameha. Mr. Kuykendall relies primarily on quotations from "A Narrative of Voyages and Commercial Enterprises", by Richard J. Cleveland, which records his friendship with Kamehameha and his role in the relations between the two rulers.